

Program BERLIN-PATROL 2019

BERLIN-PATROL® 2019 will focus on the process of „Winning the Peace“ among people in Europe and humanitarian achievements that occurred from the date of landing in Normandy on until today. Just 5 years after D-Day former enemies were engaged in providing food, fuel and hope to 2.4 mio. Berliners during the Berlin Airlift 1948/49. Already before that and before the Marshall Plan came into action Allied Troops had successfully installed functioning infrastructures, administration and relationships. We commemorate this process, meet veterans involved and visit sites of history as a farewell to British Forces Germany.

The 2019 Event will reach from former RAF Berlin Airlift Airfield Faßberg via RAF Airfield Lüneburg and City of Helmstedt to Berlin, where participants will erect the camp at RAF Airfield Gatow, today's German Air Force Museum. We will join up with the British Veterans of the Cold War Express:

Program BERLIN-PATROL 2019

Schedule

Wednesday, June 12

12:00h Starting arrival of green cars and crews at Lager Trauen (google: Lager Trauen, 39, 29328 Faßberg). Camp will be set up on the grounds in your own equipment and tents. Our Scout team will be there to assist you. Toilets and Showers are already there, too – so don't worry. If you were stationed in the area in your former life or if you like to drive around – we will recommend places – for example German Tank Museum in Munster (10km).

If you trailer your loved green one to Faßberg, towing vehicle and trailer can be parked on guarded area for the whole duration as long as you like until June 20th. If you decide to trailer your green vehicle to Berlin, please mark in the registration document. Details to be instructed onsite. Latest arrival that day at 22:00h. Late arrivals get access next morning 06:00h.

Thursday, June 13

08:00h Breakfast

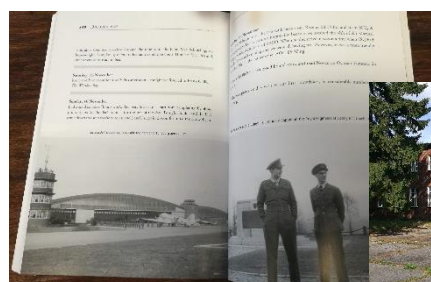

09:00h There are many places to visit and we will provide information on all options close by or farther away and for any interest. It will be a day of leisure and suggested tours.

- in type were in service between 1945 to 1994 in the armies of the USA, GB, F, Soviet Union or Germany (Bundeswehr)
- are registered for use on public roads according to national laws and which are insured
- are in technical and optical good original condition to give an impression of the original former military standard
- carry fire extinguisher and a tarp or suitable equipment to prevent environmental pollution by oil leakage
- comply with technical regulations on speed on German Autobahn with at least 60 km/h (if not, they need to be trailered from Faßberg to Berlin on Autobahn A2 – other routes can be used)

We point out that the camp site in Berlin is located outside the “Umweltzone” (ecological protection zone of the center of Berlin). Driving into the city of Berlin with vehicles which do not comply with oldtimer regulations (> 30 years) is against the law. Driving outside the “Umweltzone” within Berlin, in Potsdam and surrounding rural areas is possible. We will NOT provide special permits (Ausnahmegenehmigung).

1.2 Persons

Persons of any belief, age or gender and nationality, which are granted access to Bundeswehr installations according to German law (please see the attached list of banned nationalities defined by German Ministry of Defense). Persons under the age of 18 may participate under responsibility of their parent or guardian. Participation without military vehicle is only possible if the person is part of a car's crew. Participation as reenactor without vehicle is NOT possible.

We point out that the type of venue, program and dwelling will not be suitable for individuals with physical handicaps. If in doubt, please contact us before booking.

Meals provided during the operation will comply to German legal and military standards. We will not be able to expand to vegan or strict vegetarian food due to limitations in the supply chain. If you rely on a special diet, please contact us ahead. If you rely on special medical attention, please inform us upon first arrival at Camp registration.

2 Registration

2.1 Registration form

Registration of participants and vehicles is possible only by using the form “Registration 2019” which is attached to this document and which can be downloaded on the website www.berlin-patrol.com accepting these terms of participation. The recognition of these terms and conditions will be verified on arrival at the camp with autograph signature by each person.

Program BERLIN-PATROL 2019

2.2 Data protection act

The registration data will be processed by the operator and third party in the course of managing this project. Third party are Bundeswehr Faßberg, Bundeswehr Berlin, Bundespolizei, supporting members of USMVC e.V. and West Alliierte in Berlin e.V acting in his name according to legal requirements.

The operator is eligible to gather, store and process all provided personal data and to contact the registering party by phone, e-mail or print letter in any case coherent with the event. The operator must not use personal data for different purpose, nor sell to other party. Data will be stored in servers in EU.

2.3 Registration closing

Registration closes on April 30th 2019 24:00h or prior to this date, if decided by the operator. Such matter would be communicated in writing and made public on the website. Maximum number of participating vehicles is 200.

5. Await further information by mail.

Participation in BERLIN-PATROL® is to be paid fully in advance regardless of the duration of the individual participation. In case of unforeseeable reasons a participation can be cancelled at any time. Cancellations have to be made in writing to scout@berlin-patrol.com and can only be done by the registering party for itself. Cancellations received until the 30th of April will be refunded the complete payment. Cancellations received after that date will be refunded 50% of the price. No-shows will not be refunded.

The operator reserves the right to refuse entries without giving reasons. In all cases of exclusion during the event due to violation of the terms and conditions forfeit will result in the order to leave the grounds without refund. In case of violation of regulations imposed by Bundeswehr in Faßberg or Gatow any participant will be under direct prosecution of Bundeswehr MP and / or Bundespolizei (Federal Police).

3 Arrival / participation / departure

It is possible to participate in the whole program as well as in single parts of BERLIN-PATROL®. Please use the registration form to state your planned individual participation preference. For all individuals who are not part of the operator's orgateam the following timeschedule applies:

Earliest arrival in Faßberg: Wednesday, June 12th 12:00h

Latest final departure from Faßberg: Sunday, June 16th 10:00h

Program BERLIN-PATROL 2019

Earliest arrival in MHM Berlin Gatow: Sunday, June 16th 17:00h

Latest final departure from MHM Berlin Gatow: Thursday, June 20th 14:00h

The camp sites will be accessible under special regulation. These will be published to participants shortly before.

Participants who wish to arrive prior or who want to extend their visit can book public campsites or hotels nearby.

4 Registry / Security

On arrival at the camp site the vintage cars / pulling vehicles and trailers as well as the participating persons will be identified according to their given registration data. All participants will receive an identification bracelet, which has to be worn at all times until the final departure. At some program points it will be an entry ticket and serves for general identification as participant.

Vintage cars will be marked with self adhesive stickers on the wind shield. With this sticker they have access to the camp site / to the military grounds.

In camp Trauen and Faßberg Airbase all participants and especially drivers are asked to take special attention with armoured vehicles of active troops. During our stay personnel of other NATO forces will be present.

Security requirements on the site will be given and enforced by the operator and the military police.

5 Included Services

- General organisation for the overall operation
- Starting number, travel documents, IDs, identification sticker per vehicle, identification bracelet per participant
- Registration, handling with Bundeswehr
- Provision of camp space in Faßberg and Berlin Gatow
- Provision of secured parking for trailers and pulling civil vehicles in Faßberg and Gatow (in Fassberg extended to 20th of June upon request)
- Toilets, showers, potable water at camps
- Electricity in designated areas to charge devices in camps
- Waste disposal (common waste of household living) in camps

- Dinner (15.06., 16.06.)
- Participation in the program
- Coin, antenna flag per vehicle

6 Accomodation / Clothing

Accomodation will be possible in participants' own military tents / civil tents or campers. Every participant will be assigned a space to park the vintage car, to set up a tent or camper. There will be a separation of military „green camp“ and civilian „white camp“ equipment. Every participant is asked to state his preferences when registering.

Wearing uniforms is not mandatory. Participation in BERLIN-PATROL® in uniform matching the vehicle the time era or civilian clothes are highly appreciated. General statement: if you wear uniform, make it authentic. No mixing of military equipment with civil components, no mixing of equipment of different Armies or nationalities, no phantasy uniforms. The operator reserves the right to regulate appearance and outfits prior to program points within the city and to ask for changes if necessary. Please keep in mind to wear suitable clothing for the service on the 15th!

Program BERLIN-PATROL 2019

Current uniforms with ranks, medals and honoring marks may only be worn / carried by persons eligible to do so (valid permission to wear ranks and uniforms of that army they represent). Since active military personnel, veterans and reserve units of different armies will participate the operator can order civilian clothes or the covering of ranks at certain occasions to those participants who do not wear proper ranks. In this case participating members are kindly asked to obey immediately to prevent misunderstandings with veterans or active military.

7 Supplies in the camp

Generally cooking and food supply is to be run by each participating party individually. Gas-, Fuel-stoves and Grills may be used to cook. NO OPEN SINGLE FIRES! Please keep extinguishers handy and act carefully.

On the camp site there will be catering offering beverages (beer, non-alcohol) and food at moderate cost. This will be run by the kitchen operator of the military installations.

8 Operation / garbage

Supermarkets and bakery are in reach by car as are gas-stations that sell vintage compatible fuel. All participants are requested to collect their own garbage in plastic bags which will be provided. Collection and disposal will be organized at a central point.

9 Security

In the camp there will be specially assigned helpers. Their orders are to be followed in any case. This also applies, of course, for orders by Police and Military Police, too. In the interest of the participants and of the event any single person not obeying the orders can be expelled from the grounds and the participation.

Medical service: there are first-aid personnel in the camp and the emergency ambulance is guaranteed by local hospitals. In any case of emergency please contact the operator's headquarter / command post on the camp site.

Speed limit: a good driver knows his limits! On the camp ground speed limit is walking speed / 3 mph. Every driver is responsible for his vehicle, his own condition and that of his crew.

No driving after 22:00h on the camp grounds. Exceptions are to be met with the operator / command post.

No loud music, running generators or other emission after 22:00h (Ruling of the local authorities for Environment) Exceptions are to be coordinated with the operator.

Minors under 18 years: parent or guardian are held liable for their action. Minors must not drive motorized vehicles at all.

Pets: sorry pets may not be brought.
